III. PURPOSES OF DATA PROCESSING

Banco de México is responsible for protecting and processing the personal data it collects. Such data may be processed for the following purposes:

A) Processing purposes that do not require authorization from the data subject:

The personal information will be processed for the purposes set forth below, which, according to Article 16, sections I, II, V, VI and VIII of the Ley General de Protección de Datos Personales en Posesión de Sujetos Obligados (LGPDPPO, for its Spanish acronym), do not require obtaining authorization from the data subject:

Regarding the management of events:

1. To identify the attendees or participants of the event.
2. To confirm the attendance of the attendees/participants of the event.
3. To integrate the registration of attendees to the event.
4. To develop material for presenting and/or identifying the attendees to the event.
5. To send information of interest, invitations or documents related to the event.

6. To provide safe food options for event attendees suffering from allergies.
7. To offer meal options according to the food preferences of the event's attendees.
8. To consider all facilities, tools and/or resources available, when organizing the event, in order to prevent disabled persons from being subject to limitations.
9. To address doubts, comments, suggestions and questions related to the topics covered during the event or those related to the organization and/or execution of the event.
10. To integrate the photographic memory of the event for both virtual and in-person attendees, as well as Banco de México's personnel.

Regarding directories' preparation:

1. To generate directories of people participating in events managed by Banco de México.
2. To generate directories of individuals working for, providing services to or representing:
 - i. National and international financial organizations, entities or intermediaries.
 - ii. Financial authorities.
 - iii. International organizations.
 - iv. Any individual or legal entity, domestic or foreign, with whom Banco de México engages in dealings related to its functions, purposes and/or its operations.
3. To generate directories of natural or legal persons that provide or offer any type of goods or services, or that represent, work for or provide services to third parties that provide or offer such goods or services to Banco de México.
4. To generate directories of individuals who carry out procedures or enter inquiries with Banco de México's administrative units, either in their own right or as representatives of third parties.
5. To generate directories of individuals who perform any job or hold a position or commission at Banco de México, and, in general, of any individual performing any activity at the central bank, such as those related to professional practices, internships, or other similar activities.
6. To generate directories of individuals who perform any job, position or commission at the federal, state and municipal level, or in any authority, entity, and agency of the Executive, Legislative and Judicial branches of government, autonomous institutions, political parties, trusts and public funds, and/or in any other obligated subject with which Banco de México has established a relationship during the course of its functions, purposes and/or operations.
7. To contact the individuals referred to in the preceding paragraphs for the purpose of performing the central bank's functions, purposes and/or operations.

B) Processing purposes that do require authorization from the data subject:

Banco de México's economic microdata laboratory and data compilation on local labor markets:

1. To integrate a record of investigations that use information from the data compilation on local labor markets.
2. To send updates regarding the data compilation on local labor markets.

IV. GOVERNMENT AUTHORITIES, BRANCHES, ENTITIES, AGENCIES, AND BODIES OF THE THREE LEVELS OF GOVERNMENT, AND INDIVIDUALS AND LEGAL ENTITIES TO WHOM COLLECTED PERSONAL DATA COULD BE TRANSFERRED

Banco de México may transfer personal data collected under the terms of this privacy notice as follows:

1. To natural or legal persons, public entities, agencies or central banks collaborating with Banco de México as event organizers.
2. To meet the requirements of the competent administrative or judicial authorities or, when applicable, of Banco de México's external auditor, in terms of Article 50 of Banco de México's Law; and others necessary to comply with additional obligations set forth in the Law.

Personal data transfers mentioned in this section, according to Article 64, sections I, II, III, VI, VII and VIII, of the LGPDPSO, require no authorization from the data subject.

If you wish to know our integral privacy notice, you may consult it on our website (www.banxico.org.mx), section Datos Personales, subsection Avisos de Privacidad.
